NOTE: EVERYTHING I REVEALED IN THIS THREAD IS PUBLICLY AVAILABLE ON THE OPENET. I INTENTIONALLY LEFT OUT THE DETAILED LOGS, LOCATIONS AND DOXABLE SENSITIVE INFO I FOUND ON THE DARKNET IN HACKER GROUPS REGARDING THIS. I DONT THINK I'M BREAKING ANY RULES BUT STILL IF MODS THINK I SPOKE TOO MUCH. FEEL FREE TO TAKE THIS THREAD DOWN. DONT BAN ME.

November 7, 2017: SergeantIncel and Master create incels.is originally incels.me/.co right after Reddit bans r/ incels. Literally just hours after the reddit ban. NY Times and BBC made a blog post about it too..

Reddit bans 'involuntarily celibate' community

'Involuntarily celibate' men congregated in a 41,000-strong corner of Reddit to share misogynistic abuse.

... www.bbc.com

And one year after the creation of incels forum. On August 11-12, 2018. Looksmax.me is registered and launched as the dedicated "looksmaxxing" offshoot. Also a blackpill forum but different doomerism like incels.is, more self-improvement angled.

Background info of the creators of this site.

SergeantIncel. Alias Serge / Alexander Ash

Real name: D i e g o J o a q u í n G a l a n t e. Uruguayan Incel who lives with his parents in an upscale apartment in Montevideo. Son of a prominent law academic. He was the ideological driver, public admin, and face of both incels.is and looksmax.org early. Also heavily involved in S a n c t i o n e d S u i c i d e which was main source of all the media heat later on. I'll get to this later in the thread. Has used multiple alts and is the one who stepped away in the 2021 drama.

Master aka Marquis / Javix

Real name: L a m a r c u s S m a l l

African American IT professional from Alabama. Handled all the technical and backend work, servers, hosting, and bills from day one Nov 7, 2017. He stayed more low key until Sergeant's exit, then became the dominant owner/admin.

Suicide site founder Lamarcus Small cowers in car wh...

He refused to give a rationale for the site that has been blamed for the deaths of dozens in the US, Britain, Canada and Australia

www.dailymail.co.uk

All this information got leaked in the famous 2021 New York Times domain registrar leak on Epik.

2021 Epik data breach - Wikipedia

en.wikipedia.org

The people responsible were the famous hacker group Anonymous. It was mainly Russian/Indian hackers that breached these websites

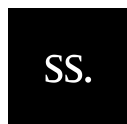

according to rumours

Funny story I also found some Indian retard bragging about the shell access and keys, showing it off to everyone in the an old archive of a chat. The digital equivalent of going on a hunt and collecting the head of the animal to frame as a trophy to display in living room and showing it to everyone jfl

Now let's talk about the heat SSui.

Both founders also created and ran `S a n c t i o n e d S u i c i d e . o r g` (launched earlier, around 2014-2018 era, but exploded in popularity alongside the incel sites. It became infamous for detailed suicide method discussions and was blamed in media for hundreds of deaths. According to BBC it estimates 500+ in some reports.

This is where the real world heat came from. NYT, BBC, Daily Mail, etc., all linked the incel forums + SSUI back to the same two guys. Master was confronted by reporters in his car; he tried to deny involvement at first but later accepted

en.wikipedia.org

Now let's get to the juicy parts of the drama. The 2021 fall out and nuclear drama.

December 2021: SergeantIncel announces he is permanently leaving all sites/roles.

He allegedly cut a deal with the US Homeland Security NGO Light Upon Light counter-extremism group with ties to ex FBI informant Jesse Morton. Yes that same Jesse morton who was an Al qaeda propagandist Jesse Morton: A Story of Trauma and Radicalization - ...

The impact of trauma on radicalization and terrorist recruitment has only recently made its way into the collective psyche of counterterrorism researchers and practitioners and is still not well understood.

 www.hstoday.us

He cut out a deal for sharing user data on "depressives/radicals/suicidal users" in exchange for legal protection. Entire thread explaining it all. Picture and a lot of the evidence has been taken down but you get the idea

Sergeant knew. (Pics) [FBI have been dispatched]

A repost of the post made by "@stirnercel" Serge admits on camera to targeting depressives and legal radicals in exchange for legal cover. | The * tl;dr by having an active account on looksmax.org or incels.is your personal info is liable to be falsely manipulated by Sergeantincel and handed...

 looksmax.org

SergeantIncel

SergeantIncel was the founder of Incels.is and Looksmax.org. In December 2021 he announced that he had left all communities and roles permanently, and wouldn't be...

 incels.wiki

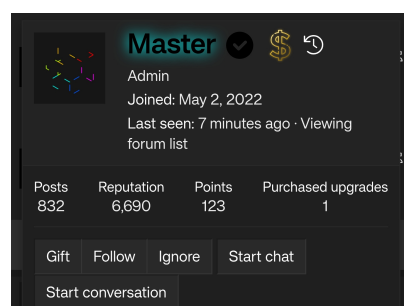

This caused massive paranoia, doxx fears, and temporary instability. What happened to Serge after this nobody really knows some say he got arrested some say he still controls in

During this vacuum (roughly late 2021 into early 2022) a user/account named @Infinity suddenly appears as a high-level figure. Oldcels might remember seeing him active exactly "during the sergeant's arrest" period

Copy and paste the content inside the square boxes without spaces

[<https://web.archive.org/web/20221201125701/> https: // en.in celw iki.o rg/Inc els.co#Pu blicize d_forum_us ers_or_lurk ers]

He was rich guy who had the resources and the connections to help this forum and claimed temporary ownership / control of the forums or at least the backend/ servers/domains/data. Handled the technical transfer of servers, domains, user data backups, etc. Kept everything running quietly while Master was away. Master remade an account and joined back. This is the reason why master's join date is 2022

Then handed everything back to Master for free once Master returned after a few months. The only reason this forum exist was because of infinity

Who was this infinity guy? Lots of theories about it. A persistent theory is that Infinity was SergeantIncel posting under an alt for a clean, anonymous exit while some claim it was an anonymous third party. I'm leaning towards the third party theory because I interacted with infinity and he didn't seem like a Serge to me.

Now one more thing to clear. Yes to put it blunt. This site was heavily monitored by feds. How I know this or what's the proof. I can't give it to you. You just have to take my word for it but this site was under an FBI watchlist and was actively being monitored for threats when the SS drama happened but after 2023 the feds left the forum.

They flagged it as low priority target after they realized that this forum was just a bunch of I quote "Good for nothing edgy teenage tryhard racist losers" and not some terrorist Incel organisation they had in mind. The feds realized that people here couldn't even hurt a fly so they left and currently this forum is not being monitored by feds. It used to be a thing with the site constantly being vetted and deplatformed but now it's not a thing

Over the years this forum switched to many domains because it kept getting taken down due to constant breaches and deplatforming. First it was looksmax.me, then looksmax.co

Why is it looksmax.co now?

I cant say .me anymore now I have to say .co. And .co is an incel site. Fuck this shit. Change it back you dirty fucking niggers

 looksmax.org

And then finally looksmax.org

Master is now the active owner and site now runs on an ultra secure Cloudflare enterprise version and has VIP sales with Crypto wallets and all that.. The sites survived through domain hopping, just enough moderation, and ccTLD resilience and feds giving up on the community because they couldn't care less about the users here.

Nice

Also shoulve mentioned that .org was a containment forum for .is where many chads were sent after it was decided .is will only have incels

Also Feds are still on this site and .is in 2024 some canadian guy from .is got swatted and put in a mental prison/hospital never to be heard from again

So how do Haitian cannibals and Liberian cannibals fit into this? I saw them walking down the street in loin cloths carrying spears. They were going door to door with your photo asking if anyone seen you. They are offering to share your meat with whoever helps capture you.
